

To whom it may concern,
Please do not implement protectionist measures to save the radio industry and restrict satellite radio. Satellite radio is an excellent example of market forces at work. The NAB fears satellite radio, but if the FCC took the same approach we would never have FM radio.

Satellite radio is a new, innovative, powerful force that should be allowed to grow. Do not follow the advice of the NAB and restrict the growth of satellite. Let the market decide.